the yacht

At 50 metres, the showstopping superyacht Northern Sun is an impressive worldwide explorer with go-anywhere capability. In immaculate condition throughout, there are plentiful areas for entertaining, socialising and relaxing, complemented by the owner's fascinating artwork collection from around the world. Her expansive saloon is uniquely situated forward on the main deck, where guests can enjoy stunning views of where they are cruising to, rather than where they have been! Luxurious accommodation for 12 guests across six spacious staterooms include a voluminous master, three double and two twins. Dedicated to entertainment, the large deck spaces offer ideal spots for alfresco dining and comfortable lounging while her extensive array of watersports equipment encourages maximum fun. Get ready for kayaks, paddleboards, a laser dinghy, inflatable tows, water skiing and more.

CAPTAIN JOHN MAAS

With extremely comprehensive knowledge of South East Asia, Captain John Maas heads up the brilliant team. Having cruised extensively throughout the Pacific, Atlantic, Caribbean and Mediterranean, John is highly professional, works well with his crew and has a fabulous sense of humour. Guiding his team to provide an exemplary charter experience every time, he says: "I take pride in overseeing our charters to exacting detail and ensuring we are able to deliver the ultimate client experience each and every time".

the experience

Originally built as an ice-class marine research vessel in 1976, Northern Sun has since been transformed into a luxurious superyacht providing 12 guests with the perfect exploration yacht to travel in comfort and style.

Her ample deck spaces with multiple versatile areas are a great feature and the most luxurious way to enjoy the beautiful surroundings of South East Asia.

With an abundance of options both inside and out including the sundeck jacuzzi and gym, entertainment saloon with games area and extended swim platform offering a vast range of watersports equipment, guests can experience enjoyment and relaxation on every level.

Designed for discrete service with different crew accesses to guest areas, the universal feeling on board Northern Sun is of inclusive hospitality, indeed the crew have created a warm family environment and welcome guests to be part of this exclusive club. Service is at the highest level, delivered with generosity, friendliness and professionalism.

For a multi-generational group looking for a relaxed charter where smiling faces, a warm welcome and fun are top of the list, captain, crew and yacht plus this exceptional region are a winning combination. It's no wonder this yacht regularly receives rave charter reviews.

CHEF RICHARD ELDON

Creating an array of beautifully presented mouth-watering delicacies for guests to enjoy, Chef Richard Eldon brings over 32 years of experience to Northern Sun, having trained as a chef and restaurateur in California, Canada and the UK. His extensive knowledge of cooking styles and techniques means he is equally comfortable producing high level, fine dining cuisine as he is with more casual home-style food, from fresh lobster to a hearty pasta dish. Providing guests with delicious gastronomic delights, whilst ensuring the highest attention to every detail is his primary motivation, he thrives on achieving great feedback for every meal.

"My culinary passion is creating dishes that offer superior taste alongside exclusive presentation – on board Northern Sun I am keen that the incredible local ingredients are the star! In this region there are so many fabulous local items to use, cooking with the freshest and tastiest fare is an absolute pleasure," he says. "I am highly enthusiastic about Thai, Turkish, Chinese and Italian cuisine, and love to provide guests with a varied and tastebud-tingling experience to suit every palate." Guests are most certainly in for a treat aboard this superyacht!
